Food and Nutrition Blog Targeting Latino Community

The Latino Nutrition Coalition has launched a new blog, "Sarita's Kitchen," which features recipes, news pieces and ideas on how to improve your health with Latin flare. The blog is part of the LNC's plan for building a strong online community. A new study by Burson-Marsteller revealed that Latinos are online more time, 30 hours a week, compared to the general market's 25 hours a week. The LNC is an Oldways' educational program inspiring Latinos to improve and maintain their health through traditional foods and active lifestyle.
